

Career summary

2019 - Coretta and Martin Luther King Institute for Peace
Special Advisor/Researcher

- Member of the Institute's Executive Leadership Group
- Develop community programs for Peace- and Social Justice Platform, including youth development, migration and modern slavery projects with our key partner, African Youth Initiative Network (AYINET).
- Responsible for human trafficking and modern slavery policy initiatives, which includes advising UN and government; submissions for governmental hearings; facilitate high-level consultations; manage strategic partnerships with CSO and businesses.
- Develop research projects
- Initiate multi-stakeholder partnership with business, trade unions and CSOs.

2019 - Journal of Modern Slavery
Assistant Editor/Podcast Host

- Develop strategy for our platforms (journal, blog, podcast)
- Develop content-and publication plans for the Journal
- Identify strategic partnerships
- Research, select contributors, and host podcast

2019 Norwegian Agency for Development Cooperation (Norad)
Consultant

- Global mapping, report and recommendations for the Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs to inform its new Development Programme to End Modern Slavery, which included:
- Identifying research areas and interviewees.
- Performing research, stakeholder meetings and interviews.

2017 – 2019 Rafto Foundation for Human Rights
Senior Business and Human Rights Advisor

- Leading the initiative for a Norwegian Modern Slavery Law on behalf of Rafto, and in partnership with the Norwegian Bar Association. The job included:
- Shaping the initiative and project plan
- Building a coalition of supportive stakeholders
- Writing a report on modern slavery laws
- Consulting with business, politicians and NGOs
- Leading seminars, speaking and participating in panel discussions

2013 University of Sydney
Tutor, Introduction to Sociology

2009 – 2011    Documentary-maker, Researcher, Public Speaker
Freelance

- Researching and developing a book project; researching for a feature-length documentary she got funding to develop; Speaking in schools and universities, for organisations and businesses based on the award-winning documentary, Modern Slavery.

2006 – 2008    Speranza Film
Director and Project Manager

- Responsible for leading the development, research, pre-production and production of the award-winning feature-length documentary, Modern Slavery. The film was shot in 10 countries and includes stories about child soldiers, bonded labour, domestic servitude, human trafficking, and child sex slavery. Tina spent extensive time on location, including one month with child soldiers in Northern Uganda and one month in a brick kiln in India. She interviewed critical thinkers and activists, such as Joseph Stiglitz, Bob Geldof, and Noam Chomsky.

Education

PhD in Sociology, University of Sydney – 2012 - 2017

Bachelor of Media, University of Westminster – 1993 - 1996

Board roles

Sydney Writers' Room, 2019 - 2020

Journal of Modern Slavery, 2013 – 2017

Norwegian Antislavery Association, 2009 – 2015